

Friend,

I have decided to take the next step in serving the people of South Carolina and have officially filed as a candidate for the South Carolina House of Representatives District #73. As you know, I am a person that takes any job serious and will take the representation of our district with the same fortitude.

As my campaign begins, we are getting our list of supporters that we can count on for my election efforts. If you can support me as your representative and support my campaign please file out the information below.
